

Back To Me

Lindsay Lohan

I used to blame me when shit got crazy
I can't think too much about what they say
And now these Sundays got me feeling like Mondays
I know I drink too much but it's okay

My life is full of ripped up pages
I've be weak, contagious
But I'm coming back, I'm coming back to me
Oh, but I know that everything changes
All things turn to basics
Now I'm coming back, I'm coming back to me

To me, yeah
To me, yeah
To me, yeah
To me, yeah

(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me

When life gets harder and the mind gets darker
Remind myself, "Never too late"
'Cause I know that I got in too deep
And I know that I wanted to leave
So easily we just walk away

My life is full of ripped up pages
I've be weak, contagious
But I'm coming back, I'm coming back to me
Oh, but I know that everything changes
All things turn to basics
Now I'm coming back, I'm coming back to me

To me, yeah
To me, yeah
To me, yeah
To me, yeah

(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me

I'ma do it right and let it go
Everything I can't control
Should have done it long ago
Crawling back to
I'ma do it right and let it go
Everything I can't control
Should have done it long ago

To me, yeah
To me, yeah
To me, yeah
To me, yeah
To me, yeah

(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back
Yeah, I'm coming back
Yeah, I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back to me
(Hey) Now I'm coming back
Yeah, I'm coming back
Yeah, I'm coming back to me
