

I Know I'm Not Wrong

Lindsey Buckingham

Her lips were waiting
Her eyes looked sad
The dreams of a lifetime
A year gone bad

The dreams of a lifetime
Told me wrong
Everything is all right
And now it's gone

Don't blame me, please be strong
I know I'm not wrong

Here comes the night time
Looking for a little more
Waiting on the right time
Somebody outside the door

Don't blame me, please be strong
I know I'm not wrong
