

Love Goes On and On

Lindsey Stirling

There's an old familiar silence
When I'm lost inside my heart
I can't hear the voice inside me

So I look up to the stars

There is darkness ever waiting
I can feel it in the air
So I call upon my angels
Are you still there?

When the wind bends the branch to softly touch me
When the band plays your song
I feel strong enough to keep dreaming
Even when I'm all alone
Our love goes on and on

When the wind bends the branch to softly touch me
When the band plays your song
I feel strong enough to keep dreaming
Even when I'm all alone
Our love goes on and on
