

Alignment

Lion Babe

I be in alignment
I don't need to hide it
Heavenly divineness
No, you can't deny it
I be in alignment
Chakras are ignited
Take off I'm the pilot
I know you wanna ride this

Alignment, oh
Alignment
I be in that
We be in that

Align it, find it
Baby get behind it
No need to follow trends
I change the climate
Hottest, modest
But should remind ya
Giving face more my taste
But my ass iconic
Grace like Jones
Talent in my bones
But I'm a legend on my own
Can't miss, won't quit
Never done with this
Stay nasty on the beat
For the fun of it

Get up on your feet now
Let your body tweak out
Are we at the peak now
Think we got a little left
Swing that neck
Moving funkier than Flex
Looking just like you had sex
And you're ready for the next round

Align, align, align, align

I be in alignment
I don't need to hide it
Heavenly divineness
No, you can't deny it
I be in alignment
Chakras are ignited
Take off I'm the pilot
I know you wanna ride this

Alignment, oh
Alignment
I be in that
We be in that
Oh

Alignment

Can't deny it
Alignment
All around me
I can't hide it
So align
