

Reminisce

Lion Babe

Sometimes I reminisce about you, reminisce about you
Sometimes I reminisce about you, reminisce about you
Sometimes I reminisce about you, reminisce about you
Sometimes I reminisce about you, reminisce about you

I don't why, I don't know why
Why I'm putting what I did in my mind
All the time I missed the past, moving fast
Hate it when the love don't last, system crash

Never gonna feel the same
Better on my own but I had a lot to gain
Never gonna make it right
Yah we're already out the door

Things change every minute every season
People switching every day for no reason
Real love's only thing that we're seeking
Keep guessing yeah, keep guessing yeah

Things change every minute every season
Don't sweat it if you fall in the deep end
Wanna stay but I gotta go
Oh when it comes to me

Sometimes I reminisce about you, reminisce about you
Sometimes I reminisce about you, reminisce about you
Sometimes I reminisce about you, reminisce about you
Sometimes I reminisce about you, reminisce about you

Must be the way I feel (I feel for you)
Must be the way I feel

Why we all seem too involved
What was with what will be

Always gonna need mistakes,
To show me so I see
Always gonna be alright,
Oh 'cause I know that I'm meant for more

Things change every minute every season
People switching every day for no reason
Real love's only thing that we're seeking
Keep guessing yeah, keep guessing yeah

Things change every minute every season
Don't sweat it if you fall in the deep end
Wanna stay but I gotta go
Oh when it comes to me

Sometimes I reminisce about you, reminisce about you
Sometimes I reminisce about you, reminisce about you
Sometimes I reminisce about you, reminisce about you
Sometimes I reminisce about you, reminisce about you

Must be the way I feel (I feel for you)

Must be the way I feel
