

Hell On Earth

Lionheart

"Alright, we got a story to tell
It goes like this..."

Whatcha gonna do when your stomach is empty?
I'm gonna take mine, motherfucker, don't temp me
How you gonna live being down in the trenches?
This clip don't jam and it's got an extension, now listen

LIFE TURNS COLD
When your past is here to haunt you
La muerte riding shotgun
While you're living out your rear view
LIFE TURNS COLD
Revenge without forgiveness
Make peace with your god
Yourself and your religion
(Make peace with your god
Yourself and your religion)

This is Hell on earth
(Hell on earth, Hell on earth)
Born into a life that's cursed
This is Hell on earth
(Hell on earth, Hell on earth)
Destined to burn

Dirty weapons, hollow tips, and trench knives
Black hoodie, balaclava, and shaved 9's
Known affiliates so they don't talk on phones
But you can get a couple Nike prints on the door outside your home
(Get a couple Nike prints on the door outside your home)

This is Hell on earth
(Hell on earth, Hell on earth)
Born into a life that's cursed
This is Hell on earth
(Hell on earth, Hell on earth)
Destined to burn

This is Hell on earth (earth, earth)

They're sitting in a All black regal
And it's right outside your house
They got on all black ski masks
So you know what they're about, singing...
"Knock knock, you better come up out that house
Or we're coming in to leave your brains up on the couch"
("Knock knock, you better come up out that house
Or we're coming in to leave your brains up on the couch")

This is Hell on earth
(Hell on earth, Hell on earth)
Born into a life that's cursed
This is Hell on earth
(Hell on earth, Hell on earth)
Destined to burn

("Knock knock, you better come up out that house")
This is Hell on earth
(Hell on earth, Hell on earth)
("Or we're coming in to leave your brains up on the couch")
Born into a life that's cursed
("Knock knock, you better come up out that house")
This is Hell on earth
(Hell on earth, Hell on earth)
("Or we're coming in to leave your brains up on the couch")
