

One life, one pain
One struggle for the rest of my days
I've got one life and it's full of pain
One struggle for the rest of my days

Yeah!

They said I'd be a lifer
Forever locked up
Like I chose to be this fucked up
When I look back I still feel that pain
I still feel that pain

Cause they fed me every other pill as a kid
Then they take notes, every chance they get
But now I'm 25 and I know what you did
I will never forget and I will never forgive

One life, one pain
One struggle for the rest of my days
I've got one life and it's full of pain
One struggle for the rest of my days

Sick and tired of being sick and tired
Of feeling like an animal
Sick and tired, so your time's expired
So how you like me now?

So how you like me now?

One life, one pain
One struggle for the rest of my days
I've got one life and it's full of pain
One struggle for the rest of my days

One life, one pain
One struggle for the rest of my days
I've got one life and it's full of pain
One struggle for the rest of my days

God, grant me the serenity to accept this pain
The courage to keep on fighting
And the wisdom to know my enemies
Motherfuckers!

Rest in peace to my enemies!

Rest in peace to my enemies!
