

The Bend Before the Break

Lionheart

And I still
Am fucking bitter and cold
Filled with more hate than anyone I know
And I still
Am fucking empty inside
24 years old, born ready to die

And I still
Just don't give a fuck
Confide in no one, 'cause there's no one I trust
And I still
Fucking hate this place
Negative as fuck, I'll spit right in your face

I am the bend before the break
I am the nightmare that you create
Negative as fuck
I am the don't ever, will never, give a fuck

Living life with a gun in my mouth
Pull the trigger, spit the bullet back out
Fuck the world, go ahead and try me

Living life with a gun in my mouth
Pull the trigger, spit the bullet back out
Fuck the world, you better drive by me

Spit that bullet back out!

Run through everything
Standing in my way
Run through everyone
And everything
