

We Are Them

Liquido

Said you won't know their name
They take it all away Coming upon the creeps Deposit your decay They'll never change Declare, digress and grant a say We fall away
That mind they break and rearrange

aha
And we never come in daytime anyway
Aha, aha
But they never/haven't quit/stop and have me waste that trip away ay
Aha, aha

We perforate your minds and keep your thoughts in line excillerate your time infinetely tipped over the streets are dead deranged, depressed and incomplete you'll drop away your minds are broken anyway

aha
And we never come in daytime anyway
Aha, aha
But we never quit and have you waste that trip away
Aha, aha
And we never come in daytime anyway
Aha, aha

Detention, apperception, immaculate your figuration

aha
And they never come in daytime anyway
Aha,
But they never quit and have me waste that trip away
Aha
But they never come in daytime anyway
Aha, aha
