

Simple

Lisa Germano

Now that the day is one
I won't see anyone
Tired and all alone

Well that doesn't sound like fun
I will give up for one
You can not stop me
From feeling this way

But if I ran away
And I never try I might miss
That the world could be so simple
Simple

Bitter and worn out girl
No one feels sorry for you
The whole world is after you

Well that doesn't sound like fun
I will give up for one
You can go on and see
That it just might be so very simple
Very simple

But if I ran away
And I never try, I might miss
That the world could be so simple
Very simple, very simple, very simple
