

I Promise You

Lisa Lisa & Cult Jam

This jam is for those who like to funk it up a bit
High?
Yeah
Alright
Music

Ain't no second guessing for as long as I'm messing with you
I will take my time
Though the waiting makes me sadder
It really doesn't matter
Because the heart is weaker than the mind

I bet you ten to one that the day will come
That you will fall in love with me
So here's a postcard from my heart
Check out the scenery baby
Can you comprehend what you see?

An ocean of emotion
A sky of devotion
A heart that beats like a locomotion
Soon you'll love me too
I promise you

I don't find it wrong that my confidence is strong
Oh baby, what I want to say
Is come on drive me wild
And I'll promise you a smile
I also promise you will stay

If I could roll the dice
Babe, I think it's wise
I bet you things will be ok
I know that you like me
But your love is what I'm gunning for
What more is there to say?

Don't fancy your car, nor your money
My limo's parked outside
And you can ride it honey
All your dreams are painted blue
I'll bring you sun if I have to
Of all these things I will do for you
I promise you
I promise you, baby

Break it down right here, drop

I promise you a dream
Show you what I mean
Because this here bass is out of place
And busting out the seam
Break

Let's dance
And get busy
What a good time

Slap

An ocean of emotion
A sky of devotion
A heart that beats like a locomotion
(Soon you'll love me too)
I will hold you
Erase your fear
(I'll take away your blues for you)
I promise you
(Yeah)
I promise you
You
I promise - there it is

Man this is funk!
Hot dog!

I promise...

You, I promise you
What happened to the you?
You didn't say the whole thing
I promise you
You
Come on, eh
Come on
Where is it?
