

You + Me = Love

Lisa Lisa & Cult Jam

I still remember the day
That you showed me the way love should be
You touched me gentle, made me feel tender
Had to surrender unto you and let you enter

Hiya, hiya, hiya, love to love you
Hiya, hiya, hiya, no one above you
Hiya, hiya, hiya, thinking of you
When you love me down, you just blow my mind, yeah

One and one makes two
You and me equals love, equals love
One and one makes two
You and me equals love, equals love

You're so understanding
You make me feel complete, you're sweet, never demanding
So happy that I found a lover
Who's my friend until the end, I don't need no other

Hiya, hiya, love to love you
Hiya, hiya, no one above you
Hiya, hiya, thinking of you
When you love me down, you just blow my mind, yeah

One and one makes two
You and me equals love
You and me, you and me, love
One and one makes two
You and me equals love
You and me, you and me, love

Let me crush a little rhyme
'Cause it's time for you to know your
What you do to you and me, honey
When we combine, sweat dripping
I feel myself looking

Inside of my heart a feeling that got me squealing
You touch my body and quiver
What you with your fingertips to my lips
When you deliver, you're like no other under the cover
Gentle, when you wanna be a rough, I can't get enough, lover

You and me, you and me
Equals love, oh yeah
In love, in love
One and one makes two, oh, yeah

One and one makes two
You and me equals love, equals love
One and one makes two
You and me equals love, equals love

One and one makes two
You and me equals love
You and me, you and me, love

One and one makes two
You and me equals love
