

Down

Lisa Maffia

Fed up with those lying cheating boys fed up with those hating feisty girls fed up with those cold and rainy days why do I feel this way it took me waiting up so long for a good day to come along need to be having lots of fun like life has just begun

Cant take no more of this oh no

Fed up of being broke but now I'm rich just as much problems make me sick wondering why they rush around hate to be pushed or pulling me down.
Fed up with problems I will face fed up with cheaters in this race why don't they live their life in peace and let the happiness increase tired of walking from place to place innocent lives just being erased family dying on my screen hope I'm sleeping it's a dream teenage life mixed up in the streets feeling so sad I feel defeat but I must keep on going on to show my daughter I am strong.
