Lisa Maffia
The Thug Angel
dan da man I've been with this guy for about 10 months and I trusted him yeah at first he was all so good to me he was always doing things like shopping and dropping and all the things he used to do for me but now his running off ends smelling too sweet to be rolling with his friends don't wanna enter your phone and leaving me home alone I'm stressing where have you been its like a mystery scene had too much doubts on my back wait
In fact why am I taking lies like that

I think we're with the wrong guys been messin' with the wrong guys I think we're with the wrong guys been cryin' for the wrong guys

What he don't know is there's a new man on the scene keeping choices open deep offerings cos he's giving us nicest surprises and hugs without crisis' on the edge for me contemplating that I like what I see always telling me what I wanna hear never switched his moves like my boyfriend used to cos he never got sex when he wants to when you're out creeping no matter now meeting the thugs that ain't cheating change or we'll be leaving uh huh this thugs got me hooked from head to toe let me show how we roll when we flow don't wanna let him go oh no

Listen punk
I'll treat your chick much better she needs another brother with more cheddar she needs someone else that suits her better not just the poor man we know well how did you leave your wife on the shelf to get dusty can't do it cos your things crusty trust me told me when she sold you so I told you furthermore I should expose you you're too quick on the counting I'm still puzzled why she chose you

You know what thug you having it no more no we ain't putting up with it no more you know what I saw hang on a minute we're gonna have so much fun
