

I Believe In Kindness

Lisa Mitchell

I am the water in the blood
That weaves its way into the mud
I am the day and I am not
I am the light that can't be found

But I can feel it
Oh, I can feel it
Oh, can you feel it?
Oh, I can feel it

I believe in kindness
I believe in education
I believe in silence
I believe in conversation

I know love is our human nature
I love the way we are waking up together

And I am the living and the dying
The mother, and the child crying
I am the day and I am not
I am the light that can't be found

But I can feel it
Oh, I can feel it
Oh, can you feel it?
Oh, I can feel it

I believe in kindness
I believe in education
I believe in silence
I believe in conversation

I know love is our human nature
I love the way we are waking up together

Can you feel it?
Can you feel it?
Oh, I can feel it
Oh, I can feel it
