

Somewhere My Baby Waits For Me

Lisa Stansfield

My life is lonely now but
I have no doubts
Someday I'll meet that someone
I've dreamed about

He may live around the block
Or far across the sea
But somewhere my baby waits for me

The moment that I see him
My heart will know
Then I won't wait to tell him
I love him so
He'll be mine
He'll have him told for all eternity
Yeah...somewhere my baby waits for me
Ohh...Somewhere my baby waits for me

When I see lovers passing
I don't feel blue
I know the things they're feeling
I'll be feeling too (yeahhh...)

I don't know where I'll meet him
I don't know when
I only know that someday
My search will end
One fine day
I'll turn around and there he will be
Yeah...somewhere my baby waits for me

He may live around the block
Or far across the sea
But somewhere my baby waits for me
oh...Somewhere my baby waits for me
