

It Will All Happen the Way It Should

Listener

If you find yourself all alone or in prison. Whether behind bars or in your mind there is a plan. There is a plan, there's a way out. It's all happening the way it should. If you're behind bars inside your mind there is a plan.

If you feel yourself tied down or in danger. If it's on the tracks or inside your heart all that will pass. All that will pass, there's a way out. It's all happening the way it should. If you're tied down inside your heart all that will pass.

If you push yourself to the edge and feel like jumping. If it's 10 flights up or even more than that just hold on. Just hold on, there's a way out, there is a plan, all that will pass. If you're on the edge and feel like jumping, just hold on.

If you've taken yourself underwater and you aren't breathing, and you are drowning in your life, there's something more. Just hold on, there's a way out, it's all happening the way it should. If you're underwater and you aren't breathing there's more of that.
