Listener

I'd like to welcome all you suckers to struggleville
Say ahh, open up and take this pill
You'll sit down in your cubicle
And eat when we tell you to and when your services are not needed here anymore
You'll clean out your desk by noon
And no talking to the new kid
Security will see you all the way to the door
It's like a prison but we pay you more
So you owe us more just lock your doors and feel real safe inside
Your house is no longer a good place to hide
Hey, there's no more corner office
Or golfing with the bosses
You have a wife and kids to tell
That you got axed today and you lost your 401k

Work hard, love, and then come in last, and then
Work harder, for someone else's dollar
