

Kicked off the Plane

Lit

Left Chicago high as hell
One red line left on my cell
Forgot my judgment at the bar
Story of my life so far

Got kicked off the plane
No one else to blame
Again
I know I've seen better days
I'll be fine
What's one more walk of shame

Said some things I can't take back
I guess your name ain't spelled like that
I never meant to be that guy
It's the price I pay for another good time

I got kicked off the plane
No one else to blame
Again
I know I've seen better days
I'll be fine
What's one more walk of shame
Got kicked off again

I got kicked off the plane
No one else to blame
Again
I know I've seen better days
I'll be fine
What's one more walk of shame
Got kicked off again

Make me make me go away
I'll come back some other day
Every time I try to change
It ends in a walk of shame

Make me make me go away
I'll come back some other day
Every time I try to change
It ends in a walk of shame
