

Ok With That

Lit

I pace the room not thinking logical
Can't stop the fear of unpredictable
Right now I'm banking on a miracle
And like that
You walk back
Through the door

I'm never leaving, never gonna move
This bed was freezing here without you
Wish I could bottle up this feeling
It's so healing
Hold on
I promise not to let go

At the end of the day it's me and you
Yeah I am who I am because of you
If tonight's all we have
Then I don't ever wanna look back
If it's the end of the world
I'm okay with that

Yeah, I'm okay with that

Love's a souvenir buried in my chest
You've seen my worst
Yeah you've seen my best
But if this renaissance painting starts fading
We know we're right where we wanna be

At the end of the day it's me and you
Yeah I am who I am because of you
If tonight's all we have
Then I don't ever wanna look back
If it's the end of the world
I'm okay with that

Yeah, I'm okay with that
I'm okay with that
I'm okay with that

At the end of the day it's me and you
Yeah I am who I am because of you
If tonight's all we have
Then I don't ever wanna look back
If it's the end of the world
I'm okay with that

Yeah, I'm okay with that
I'm okay with that
I'm okay with that

At the end of the day it's me and you
And I'm okay with that
