

Born

Lithe

Born in the late night
That's why I'm up at midnight
I don't really feel how I should now

Got myself deep in the mud now
Love when her arms all around me
Never thought love would surround me
Everybody call when they all in
Won't sleep up till the morning

Pull up in new coupe
Brand new, that drop top
I feel like the man now
I know I'm the man now
Yeah I got them doors up
I thought they would show up
Clearly I was wrong now
I'm put me on now, ohh

In the night, hold me down
I be wishing the money come now
Got me trippin' I'm out and about
I be winning the money on route
I be ready no playing no games
They gonna talk on my name
Got me thinking I'm out of my mind
Pull up on me I'll be ready on sight

When ride on by, suicide doors up high
I just wanna say goodbye, to you now
Never wanna see your face
I been moving way to high, don't you lie
I just wanna find a way
Tryna find a better day, for us now
I be calling all damn night
Baby get your timing right 'cause I'm born in...

Born in the late night

Hold you down
What you want, uh

You know me, yeah
I don't want that
Drop top with the breeze, ey
That's that shit I need yeah
Mobbing through the night
Now that bitch all over me, ey

More life, more checks, ey
More midnight sex, yeah
I'm in your head yeah
But you will never mention
You need attention, but I be on the go
(You need attention, but I be on the go)

I keep My vision 2020 on the go, yeah
I'm moving fast, hope I don't crash
Don't wanna slow down
I been up all night
Keep me up all night
(Yeah-yeah-yeah)
