

Change

Lithe

I don't mean to speak on things
Look at what I've become
I don't wanna take no blame
Look at what I've become

You think I'm changed
No fucking way
I've been the same
The same, the same, change
You think I'm changed
No fucking way
I've been the same the same, the same

You think I'm changing, yea
Nothing to say
I can't explain it
I'm still the same
Only thing I'm chasing
My own estate, yea
How you gone hate me
I need my space

I don't mean to speak on things, yeah yeah, yeah yeah
Look at what I've become, yeah yeah, yeah yeah
I don't wanna take no blame, yeah yeah, yeah yeah
Look at what I've become

You think I'm changed
No fucking way
I've been the same
The same, the same, change
You think I'm changed
No fucking way
I've been the same
The same, the same

Yea, gotta check yourself you know
Gotta check myself, I know
Ain't nobody help me, grow
Ain't nobody help me, no
Do it on my own, I know
Do it on my own, mm

I don't mean to speak on things, yeah yeah, yeah yeah
Look at what I've become, yeah yeah, yeah yeah
I don't wanna take no blame, yeah yeah, yeah yeah
Look at what I've become

You think I'm changed
No fucking way
I've been the same
The same, the same, change
You think I'm changed
No fucking way
I've been the same
The same, the same
