

Facade

Lithe

Tell me why you waiting
This where I can move aside (Away, away)
I'm still loving you
I'm fucking waiting, been waiting

I've been waiting and waiting
I'm waiting on your call to me
I'm waiting and waiting
I'm waiting on your call my number

Said you ain't got nothing I need, yeah
I been fucking with somebody can't believe
Said you ain't got nothing I need, yeah
I been fucking with somebody can't believe

Tell me why you waiting
This where I can move aside
I'm still loving you
I'm fucking waiting, been waiting

Wish you wrong, ever no
Holding out, baby, you know I can
Yeah, ever know what you've done, hmm

Tell me why you waiting
This where I can move aside
I'm still loving you (Been waiting)
I'm fucking waiting

I will never look back
I will never look back
I would never love me
Love me like that
Wishing somebody, yeah (Been waiting)

I will never look back
I will never look back
I would never love me
Love me like that
And wishing somebody, yeah (Been waiting)
