

You Don't Feel The Same

Lithe

You were never hunned with me
Why you never hunned with me
You were never hunned with me
You were never hunned with me

I ain't gonna lie, yeah
Never thought I really feel like this
Too good not true, yea
Feels like you don't exist
Now you got your way
Now I'm all in on you
I don't mean to fall
Falling all the way for you but
You don't feel the same
Too fast that's my mistake
And I won't hesitate like

Why the fuck you waste my time
I know you don't pay no mind
If these walls could talk they'd cry
I need another room tonight
I'm gon' sink and watch you swim
I'm drowning on my own again

And my camera don't catch the moon, yeah
Wishing that you could see you
And then photographs take me back
Back tryna' get close to you now, yeah, but
You don't feel the same
Too fast that's my mistake
And I won't hesitate

Why the fuck you waste my time
I know you don't pay no mind
If these walls could talk they'd cry
I need another room tonight
I'm gon' sink and watch you swim
I'm drowning on my own again

You were never hunned with me
Why you never hunned with me
You were never hunned with me
You were never hunned with me
You were never hunned with me
Why you never hunned with me
You were never hunned with me
