

Mr. Sun

Little Big Town

Mr. Sun
Please don't shine today
Leave me in the gray
She's gone and I don't need the light in my eyes
I don't feel like making any good time plans
Leave the shadows on the sand
Take the whole day off
Let it rain if you want

Maybe you could pour me
Something dark and stormy
I wish you could have warned me
How the tide could take away
All of my blue skies
Now I'm missing those blue eyes
Mr. Sun
You don't need to shine
'Cause she's gone away

Mr. Sun
I hope I can count on you
To lay low 'cause I'm blue, can't you tell?
You know I'm missing her like hell
Leave it cold, ain't no need to scare away
The clouds over Cruz Bay
Don't push 'em out to sea
Just let 'em cover me

And maybe you could pour me
Something dark and stormy
I wish you could have warned me
How the tide could take away
All of my blue skies
Now I'm missing those blue eyes
Mr. Sun
Oh, you don't need to shine
'Cause she's gone away

Maybe you could pour me
Something dark and stormy
I wish you would have warned me
How the tide could take away
All of my blue skies
Now I'm missing those blue eyes
Oh, Mr. Sun (Oh, Mr. Sun)
Oh, Mr. Sun (Oh, Mr. Sun)
No need to shine
'Cause she's gone away

She's gone away (Ooh-ooh)
No need to shine today (She's gone, she's gone away)
She's gone away (She's gone, she's gone away)
No need to shine, no need to shine today (She's gone, she's gone away)
No, no
No need to shine (She's gone, she's gone away) no need to shine
She's gone away (She's gone, she's gone away)
She's gone away

Whoa-oh
