

Three Whiskeys And The Truth

Little Big Town

You don't cross my mind
I don't think about you all day
No, I don't cross that line
I keep your memory at bay
All the strength it's takin'
To numb the breakin'
If I'm sober, I'm safe 'til
The moon gets to shinin' and I get to thinkin'
Think I'll be fine but then I start drinkin'
Unravelin', unwindin', staring at the stone-cold proof
It takes every bit of the time that I'm killin'
My heart hesitates but the pain's always willin'
There ain't no lyin', baby, I'm missing you
Three whiskeys and the truth

Mhm

I go to bed to sleep you off
And I wake up feeling better
Ain't too proud to push it down
But I'm a terrible forgetter
All the strength it's takin'
To numb the breakin'
If I'm sober, I'm safe till
The moon gets to shinin' and I get to thinkin'

Think I'll be fine but then I start drinkin'
Unravelin', unwindin', staring at the stone-cold proof
It takes every bit of the time that I'm killin'
My heart hesitates but the pain's always willin'
There ain't no lyin', baby, I'm missing you
Three whiskeys and the truth

Oh, one takes the edge off

Two makes me numb

Oh, oh

The third one goes down and I'm done
The moon gets to shinin' and I get to thinkin'
Think I'll be fine but then I start drinkin'
Unravelin', unwindin', staring at the stone-cold proof
It takes every bit of the time that I'm killin'
My heart hesitates but the pain's always willin'
There ain't no lyin', baby, I'm missing you
Three whiskeys and the truth

Oh, oh-oh-oh

Three whiskeys and the truth

The third one goes down and I'm done
