

Nothing Ever Changes

Little Boots

(Nothing ever changes)

(Nothing ever changes)

Meet me at the station, holding my frustration
Trading my true faith for a false hope
Walk me cross the tramlines, trying on our old lives
You made me leave just so I could come home

(Nothing ever changes)

(Nothing ever changes)

Nothing ever changes and it tears me apart
It's the ordinary things that break my heart
Nothing ever changes, nothing ever changes
Nothing ever changes with you

Do-do, do-do-do, do-do-do-do
Do-do-do, do-do-do, do-do-do-do

It's the same old story, burnt toast with your coffee
Change the station on the radio
Time slips through your pockets
And no one else can stop it
Sometimes you've just got to let it go

(Nothing ever changes)

(Nothing ever changes)

Nothing ever changes and it tears me apart
It's the ordinary things that break my heart
Nothing ever changes, nothing ever changes
Nothing ever changes with you

Do-do, do-do-do, do-do-do-do
Do-do-do, do-do-do, do-do-do-do
Do-do-do, do-do-do, do-do-do-do
Do-do-do, do-do-do, do-do-do-do
Do-

Nothing ever changes and it tears me apart
It's the ordinary things that break my heart
Nothing ever changes, nothing ever changes
Nothing ever changes with you

Nothing ever changes, nothing ever changes
Nothing ever changes with you
