

Easy Falling

Little Dragon

Give me a chance to understand all the things I missed along the way

'Cause I wanna feel something real

I won't hold it back if I had a second chance for your love

Won't hold it back

Wanna hear something real

Ooh, I have the urge to run away

This time I'll stay

And I wanna feel something true this time

Hold me, gently ease me

Hold me, gently ease me

As I lay in the shade, unafraid

For the very first time

Ready to feel something real

Won't hold it back

If I had a second chance for true love

Won't hold it back

Wanna give something real

Ooh, I have the urge to run away

This time I'll stay

And I wanna feel something true this time

Hold me, gently ease me

Hold me, gently ease me

Ease me gently

Tears rolling down my cheeks, been so long since I felt

Love standing here beside me

Thought I needed you

Now I feel it burning here inside me

Ease me gently
