

Sadness

Little Dragon

Sadness, sadness, closing your world
Acting older 'cause I'm not your girl
Losing power, rolling your eyes
You'll go sour surely with time

Once upon a time, we were a hopeful love
Once upon a time, you lifted me far, far above
An iron grip, I slip
A bitter, darker trip
I say goodbye, you flip

Tryin' too hard, undercover
I know that you long for summer
Can't help it that I found another

Sadness, sadness, closing your world
Acting older 'cause I'm not your girl
Losing power, rolling your eyes
You'll go sour surely with time
Surely with time

If I never
If I never
If I never went that far
What if
If I never told you, love
I guess
Guess I never said enough
I'm still holdin'
I'm still holdin' back the truth
I guess
I really never talked to you
What if
If I never went that far

Sadness, sadness, closing your world
You're acting older, I'm not your girl
Losing power, rolling your eyes
You'll go sour surely with time

Sadness, sadness, closing your world
You're acting older 'cause I'm not your girl
Losing power, rolling your eyes
You'll go sour surely with time

Sadness, sadness, closing your world
You're acting older 'cause I'm not your girl
Losing power, rolling your eyes
You'll go sour surely with time
