

The Party

Little Green Cars

Doesn't matter
What you believe in
Once you've seen it I don't think you've got a choice
Feel a hand
Hear a voice

Today has been
Full of omens
And I'm hoping that I could be one of yours
Respect birds
Talking mirrors

My whole life's been
One big breath in
And I feel that I am ready to breath out
Free these words
From my mouth

I don't wanna wreck your party
But it could be my last chance
Yeah my last chance

Now it's over
And they're leaving
Did I try too hard to tell them how I feel
Did it sound
Like a joke

So I'm gonna wreck your party
Because I'll make you cry the tears that I cant

I don't wanna wreck your party
I don't wanna wreck your party
I don't wanna wreck your party
I don't wanna wreck your party
