Hide

Little May

Taking steps toward your door
I hadn't let myself before.
Hear your name called,
She screams your name out
As you take her to the floor.
Think she likes it?

I feel so wise in your bed.
Is it me or is it her that's in your head?
And you found it,
And you drowned it,
And you washed it clean.
Feed me words while you had her between your sheets,
Bet she likes that.

See you dancing in the dark.

Can you see me count to three, no I won't play your hide and se ek (4x)

See you dancing in the dark.
