

I Found Me a New Love

Little Milton

well I found me a new love I don't have to cry no more (twice) ain't gonna beg you, pretty baby I don't intend to bow that low well you made me unhappy but right now, I feel so gay you made me unhappy but right now, I'm not that way but when you first left me I never saw I could feel this way so now, if you hear me baby make sure you understand I found this wonderful woman and you can have yourself a man I love my new love she makes me feel so gay but I really don't mind it
'cause I like to feel this way
