

Lookin' for My Baby

Little Milton

People, you know what?
My baby's left me and she hasn't come back yet
And I'm gon' jump on that train
And I'm gon' see can I find her

Well, I rode that train this morning
And I'm gonna ride all night, tonight
Yes, I rode that train this morning
Gonna ride all night, tonight
Oh, if I don't find my baby
I just ain't feelin' right

She's been gone a long time
Wonder why it don't seem right to me
Oh, she's been gone a long time
Wonder why it don't seem right to me
She should know that I'm lonesome

Lonesome as a man can be
Oh, ride

What city is this, conductor?
Well, 'cause I'm lookin' for her

Well, I've been to California
And I've been to New York, too
Well, I've been to California
And I've been to New York, too
I've been nearly around the world
Now I don't know what to do

Oh, going back home
I'm gon' find that harmony
Yes, I'm going back home
I'm gonna find that harmony
I'm gonna ask the Lord to send my baby
Send that woman back to me
