

Forget You Not

Little Mix

Hey baby, three months since I walked away
I've been out here lookin' for space
Now I need you baby, I need you baby
Oh baby, uh-huh, I'm a little hotter, I know
But it's no fun being hot on your own
That's why I need you baby, I need you babe, uh

How come they don't make 'em like you, babe?
Oh, I never respected I shouldn't have left it for real
We can make this hard or this easy
So before you move on I got somethin' to tell you for real

In the club, boy, I'll forget you not
Bada-bang-bang
With my friends, boy, I'll forget you not
Bada-bang-bang
Brand new man, boy, I'll forget you not
Bada-bang-bang
Baby, baby, I'll forget you not

Ooh, my body get hot like that (Hot, hot, hot)
Gimme that love, I'll do it right back
When it's late at night I know it gets so high
So if you need somebody I'ma give you that love

How come they don't make 'em like you, babe?
Oh, I never respected I shouldn't have left it for real
We can make this hard or this easy
So before you move on I got somethin' to tell you for real

In the club, boy, I'll forget you not
Bada-bang-bang
With my friends, boy, I'll forget you not
Bada-bang-bang
Brand new man, boy, I'll forget you not
Bada-bang-bang
Baby, baby, I'll forget you not

In the club, boy, I'll forget you not
Bada-bang-bang
With my friends, boy, I'll forget you not
Bada-bang-bang
Brand new man, boy, I'll forget you not
Bada-bang-bang
Baby, baby, I'll forget you not

Oh, I wish that we could chill like we used to do
Felt like there was no-one in the room except me and you
Now I'm passin' people in the street wishin' they were you
Oh baby, baby, I'll forget you not

In the club, boy, I'll forget you not
Bada-bang-bang
With my friends, boy, I'll forget you not
Bada-bang-bang
Brand new man, boy, I'll forget you not
Bada-bang-bang

Baby, baby, I'll forget you not

(Oh, no, no, no) (Baby, baby, baby)

Sorry that I had to let you go (Oh, no, no, no)

Maybe my friends, they were right all along (Oh, yeah, yeah)

Wish I knew then, baby what I know now, oh na, na, na, na, na
