

Blank Canvas (Interlude)

Little Simz

Blank canvas, listen
Paint me a picture on the canvas I'm hoping that you can manage
Complete it quick as you can cause the waiting game makes me anxious
The colours are in the palette didn't wear my crown today I left it up in the palace tell my runner to grab it
Embarrass them and I vanish leave em all in a panic
They wasn't really aware, Simbi be causing damage
I'm steady building an empire bigger than the Atlantic
Ever try and bring it my people will come and back it
It's the truth I got everything to lose
The proof is in the pudding I ain't got nothing to prove
All my options are unlimited, which one will I chose?
Which one is going to take me to the point of no intruders?
Won't see me with shooters, I don't fuck with losers
All my team is royalty like we came with the tutors [?]
I'm a machine that's smarter than all your damn computers
Park my verse around the corner I'm talking maneuvers
This is bigger than the universe combined with my future
Log into the haters, they're just different users
Flows are so ballistic, you know the producers
I'm hard to contain I'm just so damn ruthless
See I'm the competition you're listening to the star prize
Your arge [?] to me and I'm the mark right
I'm on fire now you was hot in your past life
Please don't get offended the rules I'mma bend them
Ain't nothing like Beckham nigga I'm a star 5
I be way up in the air and you're just a car ride
I'm glad I listened to Eddy cause he's such a smart guy
Kill em with kindness but I pray that their heart flies
If I get it I'mma show them how the realest ever did it
Talking back to Simz you know that that's forbidden
Me I'm being serious why they think I'm kidding?
This ain't no illusion... [fade]
