

Does It Even

Liv Dawson

This is cutting me up inside
You've ran over another line
Say what you want, babe
And I thought we were meant to be
Falling in love but
You speak like you're above me

Does it hurt you?
Just the thought of losing who you would turn to
Does it keep your eyes open, does it burn through?
Does the thought of losing me even hurt you?
Does it hurt you?
'Cause it's time right after time I tried
Somewhere in the past you lied
Blame it on your body, soul and mind

Does it even- does it even hurt you?
Does it even- does it even hurt you?
Does it even- does it even hurt you?
Does it even- does it even hurt you?

No, you don't have to remind me
Stop getting in too deep, I
Realise
I'm all out of what to do
To stop falling into you, no
Need to let go

Does it hurt you?
Just the thought of losing who you would turn to
Does it keep your eyes open, does it burn through?
Does the thought of losing me even hurt you?
Does it hurt you?
'Cause it's time right after time I tried
Somewhere in the past you lied
Blame it on your body, soul and mind

Does it even- does it even hurt you?
Does it even- does it even hurt you?
Does it even- does it even hurt you?
Does it even- does it even hurt you?
