

Serenity

Liv Kristine

Every woman longs for love
She aches to give in
She reveals her lonely heart
All your secrets she'll forgive

Alone with all her doubts
Alone she stands her ground
Alone

These fears within me
Enough of this
This heat beneath my skin
Be gone forever

Serenity - Let go forever
These fears - They're gone forever

Waves of serenity
She wants you to give in
Temptation makes you sin
It's the love she wants to know
Grow, oh it grows

It grows but you have doubts
Alone you stand your ground
Your're alone now-oh-oh

These fears within me
Enough of this
This heat beneath my skin
Be gone forever

Serenity - Let go forever
These fears within me - They're gone forever

Forever calm and profound
I know all these secrets you showed me
Revealed, unsealed, I know them all

These fears within me
Enough of this
This heat beneath my skin
Be gone forever

These tears I leave
I've got enough of this
This heat beneath my skin
Shall be gone forever
