

Never Be the Same

Live My Last

Sit with your drink at the end of the bar
Talk to your friends, tell them just who you are
A lie, a cheat, a thief
A toy, a lush, an incomplete
Gripping your phone but with no one to call
Climbing the high rise and taking the fall
A lie, a cheat, a thief
A toy, a lush, an incomplete

And you say that things will be okay
But we know it never ends that way

This is the last time I will be
Caught in this thing called "You and me"
And once we leave this bar, the way we are
We'll never be the same

Shifting your glance to the side of the wall
Staring again using peripherals
A shot, a smoke, a drink
Admit defeat, the night repeats
Sifting through silence and improbables
Masking the memories that once made a toll
A shot, a smoke, a drink
Admit defeat, the night repeats

And you say that things will be okay
But we know it never ends that way

This is the last time I will be
Caught in this thing called "You and me"
And once we leave this bar, the way we are
We'll never be the same
This is the last time I will be
Caught in this thing called "You and me"
And once we leave this bar, the way we are
We'll never be the same

Set it off, you know I want you, baby
But then you always let me down, oh you know you do
Set it off, you know I want you, baby
But go again and let me down
Oh, let me down, whoa

This is the last time I could be
Caught in this thing called "You and me"
And once we leave this bar, the way we are
We'll never be the same
This is the last time I could be
Caught in this thing called "You and me"
And once we leave this bar, the way we are
We'll never be the same

Oh no, we'll never be the same
And once we leave this bar, the way we are
We'll never be the same
