

Target for You

Live My Last

Back handed compliments come freely
From the speaker of the house
It's so easy to be honest
When you're looking to get out
So take the soap box, take the stage
Give me anger, give me rage
From the rooftop of your empty life
I know you'll write that page

Keep me down, keep me out
Give 'em something to talk about

When all I needed from you
Was just a moment or two
But every time I come around
I'm just a target for you
For you, for you, for you
I'm just a target
For you, for you, for you

Your sabotage, it's on display
When dirty words come out to play
There's nothing that can kill your voice
There's no one that gets in your way
And every time I'm always second to you
Everything that you do
Makes me feel so used

Keep me down, keep me out
Give 'em something to talk about

When all I needed from you
Was just a moment or two
But every time I come around
I'm just a target for you
For you, for you, for you
I'm just a target
For you, for you, for you

Crash, steal
Bleed, kill
I'm just a target for you
Blame, fight
Swallow the lies
You leave me feeling confused

When all I needed from you
Was just a moment or two
Every time I come around
I'm just a target for you
For you, oh for you, for you

When all I needed from you
Was just a moment or two
But every time I come around
I'm just a target for you
For you, for you, for you

I'm just a target
