

I Don't Care

LiveonRelease

just don't take my brand-new boyfriend i just found him yesterday and dont take away my bmx bike anything else i dont care

you can burn my house down
you can steal my car
if you kick me out
i wont care
you can take my money
you can leave me, honey
try and you'll see

just dont take my brand new mix tape i just made it yesterday and dont take away my guitar
anything else i dont care

just dont take my brand new skate shoes i just bought them yesterday and dont take away my sk8board

you can steal my car

you can lock me up and throw away the key
if you smash my tv

you can take all my songs and call them your own
if you leave me alone
i wont care
