Inside My Head

LiveonRelease

smile to yourslelf and fade shooting star with a razor blade what you got is more than i can take you've never touched the ground and you can scream without making a sound your breath is like a flood, and i wanna drown, yah cuz in another life i'd never let you down fall for a shooting star and it don't hang around, believe me you're not inside my head

under a sky gone grey your eyes so black that they take my breath away we'll forsake tomorrow for today, yah i don't care about happiness if it makes you feel alright close your eyes and bite your tongue and you'll get through the night smile to myself and fade a shooting star with a razor blade what i got is more than you could ever take la di da di la di da di da di da di da di smile to yourself and fade, i said smile to yo'self and fade you're not inside my head, just smile to yourself and fade la di da di la di da di da di da di da di
