

Always Wrong

Living Colour

Can't start where I've begun
What's done can't be undone
You can't out run the sun
You got nowhere to go
You got nowhere to go
You got nowhere to go
You got nowhere to go

How does it feel to be so right
Shame so loud no end in sight
Look to the stars for a sign
Shout it to the sky I lost my mind
How does it feel to be so lost
Isn't it a pity it's all my fault
What is done can't be undone
Before it's over nobody won

Lost and all alone
Sins I can't atone
Seeds that I have sown
Will never grow
Will never grow
Will never grow
Will never grow
Will never grow

How does it feel to be so right
Shame so loud no end in sight
Look to the stars for a sign
Shout it to the sky I lost my mind
How does it feel to be so lost
Isn't it a pity it's all my fault
What is done can't be undone
I'm always wrong
I'm always wrong

And as the hard wind blows
The truth stuck in my throat
Still I dig a hole
This is the end
And down the road
And down the road
And down the road
And down the road

How does it feel to be so right
Shame so loud no end in sight
Look to the stars for a sign
Shout it to the sky I lost my mind
How does it feel to be so lost
Isn't it a pity it's all my fault

Always wrong I'm always wrong
Always wrong I'm always wrong
Always wrong I'm always wrong
Always wrong I'm always wrong
