

Flicker inside
I've seen the end, my friend
Cannot continue in this life
Abide in the promises told
Abide in the promises proven
Abide in the promises told Abide in

Fan the spark of hope
All is not lost here
I saw the outcome once before
So distant it seems so long ago
He's still alive
Intercession so strong
Fan the flame so close now
Awaken the strength internal

Write it down, make it plain
I saw the end once before
You were there
with your heart in your hand outstretched
Shedding this darkness with every glance to the sky
This fire is revealing

These walls
These walls twisting, turning
Faithful - Sleepless - Faithful
But now I can feel
But now I can taste the air of freedom
Ripping through

Write it down, make it plain
I saw the end once before
You were there
with your heart in your hand outstretched
Shedding this darkness with every glance to the sky
This fire is revealing

Moving walls ripping down this structure
The air of freedom ripping through me

Write it down, make it plain
I saw the end once before
You were there
with your heart in your hand outstretched
Shedding this darkness with every glance to the sky
This fire is revealing
