

Down For Fun

Liz Lawrence

Had a flashback cycling down the tour path
Took me by surprise
If I could go back, tell her that she don't gotta
Act like she's alright

Down for fun
Down for anything
Down for fun
Down for anyone
Down for fun

Have you seen that guy with the jester's hat
Hasn't been the same since his rabbit died
Write your name on the roof of the elevator
Everybody back to mine

Down for fun
Down for anything
Down for fun
Down for anyone
Down for fun
Down for anything
Down for fun
Down for anyone, anyone, anyone

Listen, your body is objecting
Just listen and hold on
You don't need no correcting
Your body is a weapon
You'll be someday down for fun
