

Overnight

Liza Anne

Don't go calling me out, I can barely stand it
I got drunk again, I swore I loved you - I think I meant it Don't act blind or short sighted - you're tangling me all to fi ts
Now, I'm going crazy losing it all over feelings that you quit
Overnight

I'm not wrong to say this had to mean something
You cornered me into your mind for a time
Now, I'm collecting dust and becoming nothing
Oh, fight me on this
Say I'm wrong
Say you want me
Say you felt it
Don't go changing overnight

Don't go calling me now, because I can barely stand
I know I'm drunk again
But I love you and I'm scared I mean it
