

Sentimental

Liza Anne

Signs in the window say closed for the season
But I need to find what I'm missing
I'm just looking for life as we left it
Or is it better if we just forget it

Plans we made changed
Dreams we were dreaming safe for rainy days
Resolutions are dusty but that doesn't mean they've gone away

Just because you lost a lot of could haves
Doesn't mean that you lost you
I get a little sentimental
Guess that's just something I do
Oh are you feeling it, too?

I just your postcard
I miss sitting in your car
Feels like every days been in retrograde since march
I'm stuck between yesterday and tomorrow
Oh, what do you call today?

Just because you lost a lot of could haves
Doesn't mean that you lost you
I get a little sentimental
Guess that's just something I do
Oh are you feeling it, too?

There's a lot of phases we're gonna go through
Oh, but don't, don't let it phase you
Just 'cause you've lost that don't mean you're lost
Just 'cause you've lost that don't mean you're lost

Just because you lost a lot of could haves
Doesn't mean that you lost you
I get a little sentimental
Guess that's just something I do
Oh are you feeling it, too?

Guess that's just something I do
