

M'lord

Liza Minnelli

Come on get wise, m'lord
Her lips tell lies, m'lord
The girl that you adored
Has found some other guy
She just got bored, m'lord
Now you're ignored, m'lord
Deep down inside, your pride
Won't let you say goodbye
That southern belle, m'lord
Has got a heart of ice
That can be dull, m'lord
As well as paradise

Come on, get mad, m'lord
Life's not so bad, m'lord
The charms of other arms
Can make your heart forget
Don't count the cost, m'lord
Let her get lost, m'lord
When memory can be
A lifetime of regret
So let her go, m'lord
Come on, relax, be smart
Cos if you don't, you know
She'll only break your heart

The story is the same
Wherever young love grows
And no one is to blame
That's just the way it goes
You're not the first who's found
That love can be unkind
And still, the world goes round
But one heart's left behind

Come on, get hip, m'lord
And let life rip, m'lord
Be sure there's plenty more
Of lovin' to be done
There's chicks to meet, m'lord
With lips so sweet, m'lord
There's hearts to make and break
Before the race is won

So hit the town, m'lord
C'mon and be my guest
We'll turn it upside down
Let the devil take the rest
La da la da la la
La la la la la la
Let the devil take the rest!
