

No More Will I Run

Lizz Wright

When winter comes you will remember
Days of warm and heat
Rolling on us like a need
Relentless and caching

When the night falls
You will rest easy
Knowing there was a hiding place
Sweat like honey river rolling inside

We will know where we stand
And we will know
Where we love
And we will be
Where we stand and love
And
No more
No more
No more
No more
No more
Will we run

I look at you love and wonder
How anyone could fear our connection
I look to love and wonder
How I ever felt this satisfaction

But that's not all there is in this world
And every hour I saw my will
But that's not all there is in this world
So
No more
No more
No more
No more
No more
Will I run
Away
From you
