

Right Where You Are

Lizz Wright

When you came here already running
Then I knew you couldn't stay
All I could do is sit right beside you
I'd never stand in your way

Right where you are stop for a minute
Shimmering there in the sun
I've gone so far. I'm so deep in it
My heart is already won

Come let me see those bright weary eyes
What gave you reason to cry
If you want to leave a story behind us
Don't be so strong tonight

Right where you are stop for a minute
Shimmering there in the sun
I've gone so far. I'm so deep in it
My heart is already won

So much time is lost in pride and noble regret
No regrets no regrets
Take one sweet night
To dance and forget

These working hands
Just like my door are open they never were closed
Yours for the taking
Ready and waiting
Let yourself in like you know

Right where you are stop for a minute
Right here in this amber light
We've come so far
We're so deep in it
Don't turn away till sunrise
