

Singing In My Soul

Lizz Wright

I'm so glad some how
I've got salvation now
It keeps the spirit moving in my soul
Every day I find
It's peace and joy of mind
And keeps me singing in my soul

I'm singing, yes I'm singing in my soul
When the burdens roll
I sing from morn to night
It makes my burdens light
And I'm singing, yes I'm singing in my soul

Every now and then
There's something deep within
It often tells me when I'm doing wrong
I still kneel and bow my head in prayer
My heart rings out inside a song

I'm singing, yes I'm singing in my soul
When the burdens roll
I sing from morn to night
It makes my burdens light
And I'm singing, yes I'm singing in my soul

I'm singing, yes I'm singing in my soul
When the burdens roll
I sing from morn to night
It makes my burdens light
And I'm singing, yes I'm singing in my soul

I'm singing, yes I'm singing in my soul
When the burdens roll
I sing from morn to night
It makes my burdens light
And I'm singing, yes I'm singing in my soul
